

FCPF Program announcement

Date: September 22, 2026

Issue: Mandatory exam for validation and verification team members

We are pleased to announce the launch of the updated mandatory FCPF exam. This new version includes revised questions that reflect the latest updates to our Program requirements and templates.

Individuals that are part of validation and verification teams are required to successfully pass the exam before conducting any validation or verification activity under the FCPF. Upon successful completion, the completion certificate shall be archived and it shall be submitted to the FCPF Secretariat fcpfsecretariat@worldbank.org.

Team members will have three chances to pass the exam. In case they do not pass they will have to undergo specific training with the FMT before being allowed to retake the exam.

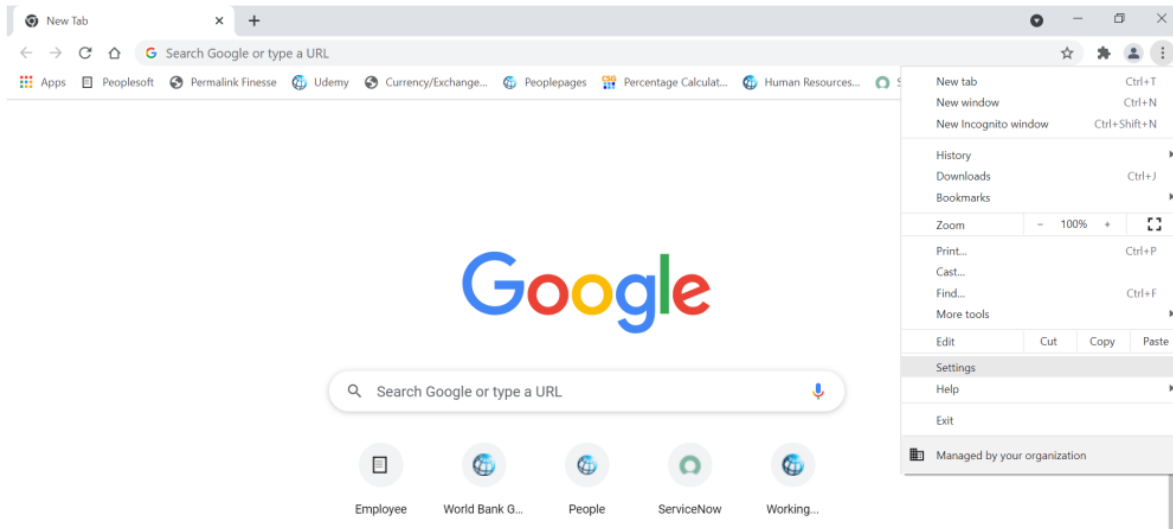

Instructions for accessing the exam are provided in Annex to this FCPF program announcement. Once registered, you may use the link below to get started:
