Instructions to return to the Main Workshop

- To return to the main workshop, you must use the unique zoom link you received in your confirmation email
  - It is the same link you used to join the opening session (introductory remarks by Leslie) and/or earlier sessions today
  - Once this session ends, there will be no more sessions running on this zoom link

- Our next session takes place in the main "Zoom plenary room"
- The next session is Private Sector Climate Finance: Opportunities and Challenges
- We urge all of you to join us in the plenary session for our last session of today – diving into the details of real climate finance transactions from various perspectives
